

Hoosier Hysteria (Milan, Indianapolis and New Castle)

Day One

Begin your day at the Milan 1954 Museum, home of the 1954 Indiana high school basketball state champions. An event that later inspired the making of the movie Hoosiers.

Head to Indianapolis and the headquarters of the NCAA. Visit the NCAA Hall of Champions, an interactive multimedia presentation that honors the competitive spirit of our nation's best college athletes.

Visit Crispus Attucks Museum one of the premier African/African-American Museums in Indiana. In Gallery III view exhibits honoring the 1950s great basketball teams and players including Coach Ray Crowe and Oscar Robertson.

Day Two

Visit the Knightstown High School Gym which was built in 1921. This historic landmark hit national fame when showcased as the home gym for the 1985 movie Hoosiers.

No Indiana basketball tour is complete without a stop in New Castle at the Indiana Basketball Hall of Fame. This interactive museum captures the essence of "Hoosier Hysteria".
